

Edvige B. Mbakoup Biography

Edvige is an Environmental Protection Specialist in the FAA's Office of Airports. Her responsibilities include managing the Office of Airport's Environmental Training Program as well as airport sustainability and air quality initiatives including the Voluntary Airport Low Emissions (VALE) Program, the Zero Emission Vehicle (ZEV) Program, and the Airport Energy Efficiency Program. She also supports Environmental Justice/Socioeconomics policy and analysis efforts. Edvige has a background in natural resource management and data analysis and earned her Bachelor of Science in Biology from South Carolina State University and Master of Public Health in Environmental Health Sciences from the University of South Carolina.