

Lt Col Arnott is a Department of War representative to the Aviation Cyber Initiative. He is a career Air Force cyber operations officer and has served in leadership and staff roles supporting enterprise, operational, and tactical networks in the military communications field.