

Baltimore Restaurant Suggestions

Steak & American Fine Dining:

The Capital Grille: (0.2 miles) A classic choice for corporate dinners, known for its dry-aged steaks, fresh seafood, and extensive wine list. It offers a sophisticated atmosphere and is very close to the hotel.

Ruth's Chris Steak House: (0.3 miles) Another well-regarded steakhouse with a focus on sizzling butter-topped steaks and a la carte sides.

The Bygone: (Harbor East, slightly further but worth the short ride/cab)
Located atop the Four Seasons Hotel, The Bygone offers breathtaking city and harbor views, a luxurious ambiance, and a high-end American menu with an open rotisserie grill and a strong whiskey program. This would be a memorable experience for clients.

Watertable: (Located within the Renaissance Harborplace Hotel) Offers contemporary American cuisine with grilled specialties and spectacular harbor views. Convenient for guests staying at the hotel.

Seafood:

Phillips Seafood: (0.2 miles) A Baltimore institution, Phillips offers stunning waterfront views and a wide selection of fresh seafood, including their famous crab cakes. They offer both plated menus and a buffet.

The Oceanaire Seafood Room: (Harbor East, short walk/ride) Known for its exceptionally fresh, high-quality seafood sourced globally, served in a sophisticated and elegant atmosphere. Perfect for a business gathering.

Loch Bar: (Harbor East, short walk/ride) Located in the Four Seasons, Loch Bar offers upscale Mid-Atlantic seafood and an impressive selection of rare whiskeys.

International & Other Upscale Options:

Fogo de Chão: (0.2 miles) An authentic Brazilian steakhouse offering continuous tableside service of various grilled meats. A unique and engaging dining experience.

La Tavola: (0.5 miles) Offers gourmet Northern Italian and regional Italian specials in a comfortable setting.

Tagliata: (Harbor East, short walk/ride) A sophisticated contemporary Italian steakhouse with a vibrant atmosphere.

Ouzo Bay: (Harbor East, short walk/ride) An upscale Mediterranean restaurant focusing on Greek-inspired seafood.