

Michael J. Falteisek
Aviation Cyber Initiative Tri-Chair
Federal Aviation Administration

Michael J. Falteisek brings over 25 years of dedicated experience to the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA). He currently serves as the Aviation Cyber Initiative (ACI) Tri-Chair, representing the Department of Transportation (DOT). The ACI is a critical tri-agency task force chartered by the Secretaries of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), the Department of Defense (DoD), and the DOT.

In addition to his role with the ACI, Mr. Falteisek is a Division Manager for the FAA Office of Information and Technology, where he is responsible for the management and oversight of key cybersecurity activities across the agency.

Mr. Falteisek holds a dual Master's degree in Aviation Safety and Management, as well as a Bachelor's degree in Aviation Business Administration with a minor in Computer Science, both from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. An active aviation enthusiast, he also holds a glider pilot rating.
